

4.3.2 Original writing

Students will produce one piece of original writing based on one of the following three areas:

- The Power of Persuasion
- The Power of Storytelling
- The Power of Information

and one accompanying commentary.

In preparation for the writing, students will study a range of style models before selecting and analysing one style model in detail. Students will select their own style model in consultation with their supervising teacher. Students will then use this research to inform their own piece of original writing.

The commentary will allow the student to consider and evaluate the style model, the writing process and the effectiveness of the final piece of writing.

The folder submitted should contain:

- a piece of original writing
- an annotated style model
- a reflective commentary
- references (paper and web-based).

Examples of pieces of writing students could consider:

The power of persuasion

- a piece of investigative journalism
- a speech delivered on a controversial topic
- a letter to an MP.

The power of storytelling

- a short story
- an extract from a biography
- a dramatic monologue.

The power of information

- a piece of travel journalism
- a blog focusing on social issues
- a piece of local history.
