

4.2.6 Global Development

Students are expected to be familiar with sociological explanations of the following content:

- development, underdevelopment and global inequality
- globalisation and its influence on the cultural, political and economic relationships between societies
- the role of transnational corporations, non-governmental organisations and international agencies in local and global strategies for development
- development in relation to aid and trade, industrialisation, urbanisation, the environment, and war and conflict
- employment, education, health, demographic change and gender as aspects of development.
