

3.4.2 Analysing operational performance

| Content | Additional information |
|---------|------------------------|
|---------|------------------------|

| Content                                                                                                       | Additional information                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| The interpretation, calculation and use of operations data in operational decision making and planning | Students should be able to calculate: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• labour productivity</li> <li>• unit costs (average costs)</li> <li>• capacity</li> <li>• capacity utilisation.</li> </ul> |