

4.2.2 Methods of language analysis

Students will be required to use methods of language analysis to:

- identify and describe features of language diversity and change
- research diversity and change
- analyse how texts present ideas about language.

The following list is a guide to the areas of language students are expected to examine:

- phonetics, phonology and prosodics: how speech sounds and effects are articulated and analysed
- graphology: the visual aspects of textual design and appearance
- lexis and semantics: the vocabulary of English, including social and historical variation
- grammar, including morphology: the structural patterns and shapes of English at sentence, clause, phrase and word level
- pragmatics: the contextual aspects of language use
- discourse: extended stretches of communication occurring in different genres, modes and contexts.
