

3.5 Component 5: the calendar and time

This content aims to develop the student's understanding and use of 12 and 24-hour time and of calendars and timetables in everyday use.

Students will learn how to read digital and analogue clocks, including using roman numerals and learn how to convert between 12 and 24-hour times. They will also learn about days, weeks and months of the year.