

3.1.4 Stakeholders

Content	Additional information
• Main stakeholders of businesses • Objectives of stakeholders • Impact of business activity on stakeholders • Impact and influence stakeholders have on businesses	Students should be able to: • understand what is meant by a stakeholder and who the main stakeholders of a business are, including owners, employees, customers, local community and suppliers • understand stakeholders' main objectives including maximising pay for workers, minimising environmental impact on local community and high dividend payments for owners • understand the impact and influence stakeholders have on businesses and their objectives and how businesses may face conflict between stakeholders.