

3.3.1 Production processes

Content	Additional information
Methods of production: • job • flow.	Students should be familiar with job and flow production methods and understand when each is appropriate.
Efficiency in production: • lean production • just in time (JIT).	Students should consider how production might be made more efficient by the use of lean production techniques.