

3.2.5 Boolean operations in a programming language

Content	Additional information
Be familiar with and be able to use: • NOT • AND • OR.	Students should be able to use these operators, and combinations of these operators, within conditions for iterative and selection structures.