

3.2.1 Selection of materials or components

In relation to at least one material category or system, students should be able to select materials and components considering the factors listed below.

Content	Potential links to maths and science
Functionality: application of use, ease of working. Aesthetics: surface finish, texture and colour. Environmental factors: recyclable or reused materials. Availability: ease of sourcing and purchase. Cost: bulk buying. Social factors: social responsibility. Cultural factors: sensitive to cultural influences. Ethical factors: purchased from ethical sources such as FSC.	Calculation of material costs. Selection and use of materials considering end of life disposal.