

3.5.5 Stereotypes

Content	Guidance notes
The different functions and uses of stereotypes: • How stereotypes become established. • How stereotypes may vary over time. • Positive and negative stereotypes. • How stereotypes enable audiences to interpret media quickly.	A range of different stereotypes should be discussed and exemplified in order that students understand the problems with and usefulness of stereotypes.