
Example 4

Explorative study

Shakespeare's King Henry IV – Part 2 is studied and Edward II is used to explore responsibility. Critical reviews of performances are analysed.

Approximate word count: 2000

Creative critical response

Write an outline pitch for the BBC's Shakespeare Re-told series, where you demonstrate how you might re-tell King Henry IV – Part 2 for a 21st century television audience, making clear the reasons for your choices.

Approximate word count: 500

Example 5

Explorative study

Shakespeare's Measure for Measure is studied and Twelfth Night is used to explore how a moral dilemma is presented and the degree to which satisfactory solutions are found.

Approximate word count: 2000

Creative critical response

Identify one scene which directors regard as being problematic on stage. Write the script for a talk to be given by the director outlining the problems posed by this scene and how these problems are going to be explored on the stage.

Approximate word count: 500

2.3 Unit content

Details of learning content

Centres and students are free to choose their texts to comply with the need to include a play by Shakespeare and a further play written between 1300 and 1800.