
2.4 What students need to learn

Unit 2

- The relevance of genre in relation to the particular texts studied and how texts are influenced by literary conventions
- How playwrights use dramatic forms to evoke responses in audiences
- The contexts in which texts have been produced and received and understanding of how these contexts influence meaning
- Key connections between drama texts studied
- A range of ways to read and experience texts
- Ways to interpret texts independently in response to interpretations by different readers
- Ways to communicate clearly and effectively their responses to the texts studied, in a range of forms
- Ways to construct critical arguments