

|                                            |     |                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|--------------------------------------------|-----|------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 3Further centres of mass | 3.1 | Centre of mass of uniform and non-uniform rigid bodies and composite bodies. | Problems which involve the use of integration and/or symmetry to determine the centre of mass of a uniform or non-uniform body may be set. The level of calculus will be consistent with that required in A level Mathematics and Further Mathematics. Unless otherwise stated in the question, results given in the formulae book may be quoted without proof. |
|                                            | 3.2 | Equilibrium of rigid bodies under the action of coplanar forces.             | To include (i) suspension of a body from a fixed point, (ii) a rigid body placed on a horizontal or inclined plane.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
|                                            | 3.3 | Toppling and sliding of a rigid body on a rough plane.                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |