

- Section B: 50 marks – one essay question on an unfamiliar piece of music (Question 5) and one essay chosen from four optional questions on a set work (Question 6).
- Students must answer all questions, with the exception of Question 6 which will give a choice of four options, of which students must answer one.
- The paper will include multiple-choice, short open and extended writing questions.
- Each student will have access to audio files and an individual audio player with the extracts of music relating to the exam, and will be in control of listening to the extracts relating to each question.

Section A

Students will be assessed on their ability to identify aurally the key musical features in some of the set works from the areas of study. They should understand the context within which the set works were composed and their place within the area of study as a whole.

Students will also be expected to express and justify opinions on the set work extracts and complete short musical dictation and staff notation questions.

Section A will feature aural listening questions with skeleton scores on set works from different areas of study. These questions will include short answer responses and some multiple choice questions. There will also be some dictation of pitch and rhythm in this section of the paper. The dictation will be from unfamiliar works that feature musical elements, language and contexts related to those in the set works.
