

5 Works of scholars	5.1	Atonement theory a) An analysis of the key terms atonement and soteriology. b) Models of atonement, including sacrifice, victory, substitution and moral exemplar. With reference to the ideas of Anselm and G Aulén.
	5.2	A comparison of key ideas in the work of Karl Barth and John Hick (3) (4) a) Barth's work on Jesus' death as a substitution for sinful humanity and taking God's judgment on himself, the idea of 'the Judge Judged in Our Place', biblical background, context of the Reformed tradition, the context of the language and traditional imagery of guilt, judgment and forgiveness. b) Hick's work on the role of Jesus as a moral exemplar, divinity and resurrection of Jesus as myth and metaphor, implications for doctrines of incarnation and Trinity, notions of sin, the role of the cross in the modern age, context of 20th century atrocities for an understanding of sin and human nature, the impact of Hick's ideas for interfaith dialogue. c) The strengths and weaknesses of these views, their meaning and significance for Christians and the impact of these views on Christianity in the modern age.