Students should be able to:

- develop a detailed understanding and appreciation of the works studied, by writing critical and analytical responses in the language of study to the works, taken from the prescribed list provided (see Appendix 2: Prescribed literary texts and films)
- produce responses that show critical appreciation of features such as:
 - key concepts and issues;
 - characterisation;
 - form and technique of presentation, e.g. effect of narrative voice in prose text, effect of camera work in film;
 - social and cultural setting;as appropriate to the work studied
- present viewpoints, develop arguments, draw conclusions, analyse and evaluate in writing
- manipulate language accurately through translating an unseen passage from English into Spanish.

Students must study two discrete Spanish works: either two literary texts, or one literary text and one film. The works must be taken from the list in Appendix 2: Prescribed literary texts and films. The literary texts listed include a range of novels, plays and a series of short stories. All of the films are feature length. The content of the translation will be a passage based on one of the four themes.
