

14 Sampling, estimates and resampling

Subject content	Additional information
14.1 Use and demonstrate understanding of terms parameter, statistic, unbiased and standard error.	Students will be expected to know that: • a parameter is a numerical property of a population • a statistic is a numerical property of a sample and is a function of only the values in the sample and contains no unknown parameters.