

6.4 Input/output	6.4.1	be able to write programs that accept and respond appropriately to user input
	6.4.2	be able to write programs that read from and write to comma separated value text files
	6.4.3	understand the need for and be able to write programs that implement validation (length check, presence check, range check, pattern check)
	6.4.4	understand the need for and be able to write programs that implement authentication (ID and password, lookup)