

5.6 The interactions of economic, social and demographic processes influence the development of the chosen developing or emerging country	a. Positive and negative impacts of changes that have occurred in the sectors (primary, secondary, tertiary and quaternary) of the chosen country's economy. (3)
	b. Characteristics of international trade and aid and the chosen country's involvement in both. (4)
	c. Changing balance between public investment (by government) and private investment (by TNCs and smaller businesses) for the chosen country.
	d. Changes in population structure and life expectancy that have occurred in the last 30 years in the chosen country. (5)
	e. Changing social factors (increased inequality, growing middle class and improved education) in the chosen country.