
Section 12.4 Living the Jewish life

Students will be required to: demonstrate knowledge and understanding of the specification; express their own responses to the issues and questions raised by the specification using reasons and evidence; evaluate alternative points of view about these issues and questions.

Key words — chevra kaddisha, kashrut, kippah, kosher, mezuzah, mikveh, parev, shechitah, shiva, tallit, tefillin, yahrzeit

- The nature and importance of the mitzvot.
- The meaning and significance of the Noachide laws.
- The implications of kosher food laws for a home and for living in the UK.
- Why there are different attitudes to the mikveh among Jewish people.
- Why there are different attitudes to dress laws (including dress for worship) among Jewish people.
- The meaning and significance of Jewish death practices and their implications when living in the UK.
- The role and importance of a synagogue for the local Jewish community.
- How and why some Jewish people are involved in working for social and community cohesion.
- How one Jewish organisation helps to relieve poverty and/or suffering in the UK.
- The reasons why the organisation does this work (Jewish teachings on charity and the relief of suffering).
- Different attitudes as to whether it is easy or difficult to live the Jewish life today.

Unit 13 Hinduism

Content overview

This unit requires students to study the nature of Hinduism and its effects on the lives of Hindu believers in the UK. There are four sections covering beliefs and values, community and tradition, worship and celebration, and living the Hindu life.

Key words are given at the beginning of each section. Students should be aware of their meanings and be able to use them in their examination answers. A glossary of the key words can be found in Appendix 4.

In order to meet Assessment Objective 2, students need to be aware of a range of responses addressing religious and/or non-religious beliefs.

Assessment overview

Assessment will be through a one-and-a-half-hour examination. The examination will be divided into four sections and students will be expected to choose one of the two questions set on each section, ie four questions in total. Each question is sub-divided into four parts structured on an incline of difficulty.

Religious Studies papers are designed to give access to the full range of grades and are not tiered.

Quality of Written Communication will be assessed through Assessment Objective 1 in part c) of each question.