

1.2 Types of organisation

Understanding the legal forms of business organisation in the UK (local, national and international) and how their objectives might differ. This will include an understanding of sole traders, partnerships, limited liability companies, franchises and multi-nationals. An understanding of the factors which influence the choice of type of organisation including ownership, control, sources of finance, use of profits, stakeholders and shareholdings.