

Topic 3: Hazardous environments

What students need to learn

Key ideas	Detailed content
3.1 Some places are more hazardous than others	a) Characteristics, distribution and measurement of different types of natural hazards including tropical cyclones, earthquakes and volcanoes. (1) b) Causes of tropical cyclone hazards, including ocean temperature, atmospheric pressure, wind shear and Coriolis force. c) Causes of volcanic and earthquake hazards, including the role of plate boundaries and hotspots. (2)