

Topic 6: Urban environments

What students need to learn

Key ideas	Detailed content
6.1 A growing percentage of the world's population lives in urban areas	a) Contrasting trends in urbanisation over the last 50 years in different parts of the world, including the processes of suburbanisation and counter-urbanisation. (1) b) Factors affecting the rate of urbanisation and the emergence of megacities. c) Problems associated with rapid urbanisation: congestion, transport, employment, crime and environmental issues. (2)