

4.2 Assessment information

This unit assesses listening, reading and writing skills.

- First assessment: June 2018.
- The assessment is 2 hours and 30 minutes.
- The assessment is out of 90 marks.
- There are three sections: Section A assesses listening skills, Section B assesses reading and grammar skills and Section C assesses writing skills.
- Sections A and B consist of eight questions. Section C consists of one extended-writing task.
- In Section C, a choice of 2 questions will be offered for each topic, literary text or film.
- Students must answer only one question in Section C.
- The unit will contribute 35% towards the overall weighting for the IAL qualification.

Section A: Listening (20 marks)

Students will be required to listen to a range of authentic recorded material in French and to retrieve and convey information given in the recording by responding to a range of questions in French. Students will need to show understanding of both the general sense and specific details conveyed. The questions will elicit non-verbal responses and short answers in French.

Section B: Reading and Grammar (30 marks)

Students will be required to read authentic printed materials written in French and to retrieve and convey information by responding to a range of questions in French. The questions will elicit non-verbal responses and short answers in French.

Questions are linked to a range of reading comprehension exercises.

Students will also need to understand and manipulate grammatical structures in French by rewriting phrases using the words or expressions given to them in brackets (the phrases to