

Learners will be expected to demonstrate skills as defined in the Art and Design Core Content section of this specification, in the context of their chosen area(s) of Graphic Communication. In addition learners will be required to demonstrate skills in all of following:

- applying and using composition in Graphic Communication
- understanding and application of scale appropriate to the chosen work and direction relevant to learners' intentions
- understanding and applying formal elements such as colour, tone, texture, shape and form in relation to Graphic Communication
- selecting, editing and highlighting Graphic Communication imagery and text
- using appropriate visual language and terminology within Graphic Communication

	• manipulating imagery • understanding and using relevant conventions and genres in Graphic Communication.
--	--