

2c. Content of: Analysing performance (31)

This component consists of two sections. The aim of Section A is to enable learners to demonstrate knowledge and understanding of how extracts from the chosen texts can be rehearsed and interpreted in performance, showing an awareness of characterisation, performance style, genre and context.

The aim of Section B is to allow learners to analyse and evaluate live theatre.

Learners will explore how characters can be interpreted and developed ready for a performance. This component is assessed through a written exam but preparation must include practical study.

Section A will include study of two different performance texts which explore one of the following themes:

- conflict
- family dynamics
- heroes and villains.

Learners must explore practically the opening 10 minutes of each text and at least three additional scenes from across the text. For further guidance see Appendix 5h.

Learners are not permitted to have access to the text in the examination.

All of the set texts in this component cannot be performed for assessment in the 'Exploring and performing texts' or the 'Practitioners in practice' components.

The set texts will be reviewed after three years and may be subject to change. If a text is to be removed from the list and replaced with another text, centres will be notified a year in advance.

In Section B learners are required to have seen a live theatre performance. Details on the performances which can be analysed and evaluated for this component can be found in Appendix 5e.

The learners must watch this performance during the course of their A Level study. At the start of their answer they must state the name of the
