

3.2 Contemporary issues in physical activity and sport

The ethics involved in sport and deviance that affects sport and sporting behaviour will be understood and applied using practical examples.

Learners will develop their knowledge and understanding of the positive and negative impacts of commercialisation and the media on physical activity and sport. The routes to sporting excellence in the UK will be known and the roles of key organisations to develop excellence will also be understood.

The important and developing influences of modern technology in physical activities and sport will be understood as well as its impact on participation, fair outcomes and entertainment.

Topic Area	Content
*Ethics and deviance in sport 	• drugs and doping in sport ◦ legal supplements versus illegal drugs and doping ◦ reasons why elite performers use illegal drugs/doping ◦ consequences/implications to: – society – sport – performers ◦ strategies to stop the use of illegal drugs and doping • violence in sport ◦ causes in relation to players and spectators ◦ implications to: – society – sport – performers ◦ strategies to prevent violence in relation to players and spectators • gambling in sport ◦ match fixing/bribery ◦ illegal sports betting.

Topic Area	Content
*Commercialisation and media  	• factors that influence the commercialisation of contemporary physical activity and sport: ◦ growing public interest and spectatorship ◦ more media interest ◦ professionalism ◦ advertising ◦ sponsorship • positive and negative impacts of the commercialisation of physical activity and sport on ◦ society ◦ individual sports ◦ performers ◦ spectators • coverage of sport by the media today and reasons for changes since the 1980s ◦ television – terrestrial – free-to-air – satellite – subscription – pay-per-view ◦ radio – dedicated sports stations – local and national radio ◦ written press – newspapers – magazines ◦ internet • positive and negative effects of the media on sport ◦ individual sports ◦ performers ◦ spectators • relationship between sport and the media ◦ sport as a commodity ◦ links with advertising and sponsorship ('golden triangle').
*Routes to sporting excellence in the UK 	• development routes from talent identification through to elite performance • the role of school, clubs, universities in contributing to elite sporting success • the role of UK Sport and National Institutes in developing sporting excellence/high performance sport • strategies to address drop-out/failure rates from elite development programmes/at elite level.

Topic Area	Content
*Modern technology in Sport – its impact on Elite level sport, participation, fair outcomes and entertainment 	Elite performance: ○ the extent to which modern technology has affected elite level sport including increased/improved: – access – facilities – equipment – monitoring of exercise – safety General participation: ○ the extent to which modern technology has increased participation including increased/improved: – access – facilities – equipment – monitoring of exercise – safety ○ the extent to which modern technology has limited or reduced participation including: – cost – the range of alternatives to physical activity and sport Fair outcomes: ○ the extent to which modern technology has increased fair outcomes including: – better timing devices – increased accountability of officials – more accurate decision making – improved detection of foul play – improved detection of doping ○ the extent to which modern technology has limited or decreased fair outcomes including: – access to modern technology can be limited – performance enhancing drug testing technology cannot keep up with new drug development – pressure on officials due to the exposure and scrutiny of their decisions Entertainment: ○ the extent to which modern technology has increased entertainment including: – action replays – multiple camera angles – slow motion technology – improved analysis – punditry ○ the extent to which modern technology has reduced or limited entertainment including: – interruption and delay – reduced live attendances.