

1y of	God as revealed through religious language and experience Nature of God – God's attributes Miracle – God's activity in the world	Revelation through Holy Scripture Nature of Holy Scripture Meaningfulness of Religious language Revelation	Argument from Religious Experience Revelation – concept of religious experience Validity of Religious Experience Miracles	Boethius – choice and destiny Different views of life and death Distinctions between body and soul Disembodied existence
--------------	--	---	--	---