

4.4 Unit R095: Characters and comics

Aims

Storytelling using images and characters has illustrated, commented on and enriched life from the earliest cave paintings to web comics and memes. Today's comics frequently have a distinctive style and a diverse yet loyal target audience. Central to a comic's appeal is the inclusion of characters which readers can engage or identify with. Whether a storyline is humorous and trivial or dark and philosophical, finding out how characters deal with events is what keeps readers entertained and engaged.

In this unit you will learn to design and create original characters that convey emotion and personality. You will also learn to set your characters within stories of your own making which flow logically and engage the reader. You will also learn to use conventions of comics to tell your characters' stories across multiple pages. Completing this unit will provide you with the basic skills for further study or a range of creative job roles within the media industry.
