

4.8 Unit R099: Digital games

Aims

The UK has one of the largest games markets in the world, and the UK's games industry is among the largest in Europe. Its workforce has one of the youngest profiles in the media industries with earnings above the media industry average. It is a sector with a huge variety of technical and creative job roles. This unit will open the door to a variety of roles within the media industry by enabling you to identify core features of digital games and understand the basics of planning, designing, creating and testing digital games.

In this unit you will learn to interpret client briefs to devise original digital game concepts. You will learn to plan digital games effectively and to use a Game Design Document to create engagement among developers and clients. You will learn to create, edit, test and export playable digital games which you have designed. Completing this unit will provide you with the basic skills for further study or a range of creative and technical job roles within the media industry.
