

Scope and Context	The specification is designed to encourage, enable and inspire learners to: • actively engage with the creative processes of art, craft and design in their chosen title(s) and area(s) of study • develop, through the course of study, to be reflective thinkers with enquiring minds • become effective and independent learners through the study of art, craft and design • develop their creative, imaginative and intuitive capabilities when exploring, creating and producing their images, artefacts and products • become confident in taking risks, learning from their experiences through exploring and experimenting with ideas, processes, materials, techniques, digital and non-digital media • develop critical understanding through their chosen area(s) of study, using personal interpretation, considered selection of sources and independent judgements through an active investigation process • develop and refine their ideas, supported by an understanding of their context and what has informed them • work through purposeful engagement with an appropriate range of media, materials, techniques, processes and technologies with the purpose and intent to impact on the progress of work • develop knowledge and understanding of art, craft and design in historical and contemporary contexts, societies and cultures appropriate to their chosen area(s) of study • develop through the course of study, an awareness of the different work practices and roles of the creative and cultural industries in the production of art, craft and design • show an understanding of the purpose, intentions and functions of art, craft and design, and how this impacts on their own work • identify and acknowledge all sources used during their research which should be in the form of a bibliography of books, journals and websites • demonstrate safe working practices in art, craft and design.
--------------------------	---