

Area of Study	Content	Learners should be able to:
Business objectives and strategy	Risk and uncertainty	• evaluate the specific risks faced by an entrepreneur • explain what is meant by uncertainty • distinguish between internal and external causes of uncertainty • identify internal and external causes of uncertainty in a business • evaluate the impact of internal and external causes of uncertainty on a business and its stakeholders • explain the relationship between uncertainty and risk • explain how uncertainty can affect a business including effects on aims and objectives, planning, decision making, business analysis and forecasting.
	Measures of performance: financial and non-financial	• distinguish between financial and non-financial measures of business performance • explain the importance to a business of using financial measures of business performance • explain the difference between cash flow and profit.
	Decision making	• evaluate which course of action a business should take.