

9.2 What are the implications of health and safety legislation on product manufacture?

- | | |
|---|---|
| a. Demonstrate an understanding of how the regulatory and legislative framework in the Health and Safety at Work Act (HASAW) sets out duties of employers and employees in the product manufacturing industries, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none">i. Control of Substances Hazardous to Health (COSHH)ii. Personal Protective Equipment at work regulations (PPE)iii. ensuring machinery is well maintained. |  |
| b. The responsibility of manufactures to appropriately label products and offer warranties to their consumers to deliver the correct levels of product assurance related to safety. |  |