

|                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Enquiry Topic: Mid Tudor Crises 1547–1558                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Key Topics                                                        | ContentLearners should have studied the following:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| The stability of the monarchy                                     | Issues of Edward VI's age and Mary Tudor's gender, marriage of Mary Tudor and Philip, the Devise and succession in 1553 and the succession in 1558; faction and its impact during the rule of Somerset and Northumberland; factional conflict between Paget and Gardiner under Mary.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Religious changes                                                 | The religious and ecclesiastical policies 1547–1558; legislation, including the Prayer Books and Acts of Uniformity and the extent and results of religious change under Edward and Mary; support for, and opposition to, the religious changes at a local level including unrest, attitudes to Marian policies, Catholic restoration and persecution.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Rebellion and unrest                                              | Causes and nature of rebellion and unrest; the rebellions of 1549 (Western and Kett), 1553 (Lady Jane Grey) and 1554 (Wyatt); social and economic developments, including inflation, poverty, price rise and enclosure and their link to unrest.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| British Period Study: Elizabethan England                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Key Topics                                                        | ContentLearners should have studied the following:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Elizabeth and religion                                            | The religious situation and problems in 1558; the foreign situation and its impact on religious developments; the Elizabethan Religious Settlement; the Puritan challenge and aims, support for Puritanism, the influence of Puritan leaders, attempts to change the church, the MP's tactics, separatism; the attitude of Elizabeth's archbishops; the Catholic threat and its nature, the increased threat after 1568, government reaction, the Northern Rebellion (1569), Papal excommunication (1570), Mary Queen of Scots, plots, seminary priests, Jesuits; the problems facing Catholics 1558–1589. |
| The nature of the Elizabethan Monarchy, Government and Parliament | The role of the court, ministers and Privy Council, including the role and influence of William Cecil; Elizabeth's use and management of faction; the role of gender; the roles of the House of Commons and Lords; Parliament's relationship with the Queen; the attitudes of Elizabeth, the Privy Council and Parliament to the issues of marriage, succession and parliamentary privilege; the impact of marriage and succession on domestic and foreign affairs; the impact of Mary Queen of Scots and James VI.                                                                                        |

|                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Elizabeth's management of financial, economic and social affairs | The financial and economic situation in 1558; sources of crown income; the problem of inflation; methods of raising finances; ordinary revenue, parliamentary taxation; methods of reducing costs, financial administration, the impact of war; overseas trade; the issue of purveyances and monopolies; the Statute of Artificers, poverty and the poor law. |
| Elizabethan later years 1588–1603                                | The defence of the royal prerogative, relations with Parliament; the domestic effects of war with Spain; economic and social problems, harvests and the impact of rising prices, local unrest, food riots, the Oxfordshire rising; the Irish rebellion, Essex's rebellion; Elizabeth's reputation in this period.                                             |