

3.2 Revenue generated by sales of the product

- Calculate total revenue (Selling price per unit x Number of sales)

To include:

- Calculations involving different time periods, such as per month or per year. Rearranging a formula to find a component, for instance calculate the number of items sold if the selling price and revenue are known