

Knowledge and Understanding

Learners are required to demonstrate the knowledge and understanding listed below through practical application of skills to realise personal intentions relevant to their chosen area(s) of Fine Art.

Learners are required to know and understand how sources inspire the development of their ideas.

Reference should be made to the following:

- the work and approaches of fine artists from contemporary and/or historical contexts, periods, societies and cultures
- contemporary and/or historical environments, situations or issues
- other relevant sources researched by the learner in their chosen area(s) of fine art
- the ways in which meanings, ideas and intentions can be communicated through visual and tactile language, using formal elements, including:
 - colour
 - line
 - form
 - tone
 - texture
- the characteristics, properties and effects of using different media, materials, techniques and processes, and the ways in which they can be used in relation to learners' own creative intentions and chosen area(s) of Fine Art
- the different purposes, intentions and functions of Fine Art in a variety of contexts and as appropriate to learners' own work.
