

Overview

- Critical and Contextual Studies is defined here as the critical analysis, interpretation and reflective appraisal from a contemporary perspective of the work of artists, craftspeople and designers.
- Learners must explore, acquire and develop skills, knowledge and understanding through the application of research and analysis in the context of critical and contextual understanding.
- Learners must explore in written, practical or a combination of both approaches, relevant critical and contextual sources such as the work of historical and contemporary practitioners and the different purposes, intentions and functions of in art, craft or design as appropriate to their own area of investigation.
- Learners must demonstrate the ability to analyse critically, and interpret the work of artists, craftspeople and designers taking into account the context (e.g. historical, cultural, social, economic or political) of their production in order to understand meanings, purposes, relationships and influences.