

4. Operations

In this section, learners explore what business operations involve, their role within the production of goods and the provision of services, and how they influence business activity. Knowledge and understanding of business operations must include the following: