

Section 1: Knowledge and understanding about becoming informed citizens

How the economy functions, including the role of business and financial services

C2: The role of the chemical industry to add value to raw materials (oil) by converting them to polymers.

C5: The role of manufacturing industry in adding value by extracting metals from their ores.

C6 and C7: The scale and importance of the chemical industry

The work of parliament, the government and the courts in making and shaping the law

C1: Role of regulation in limiting air pollution.

The opportunities for individuals and voluntary groups to bring about social change locally, nationally, in Europe and internationally

C1: Actions which individuals, communities and governments can take to reduce air pollution.

C2: Opportunities to change policies for dealing with domestic waste.

The rights and responsibilities of consumers, employers and employees

C6 and C7: The responsibility of the chemical industry to minimise damage to people and the environment while producing products that are effective and safe.

The issues and challenges of global interdependence and responsibility, including sustainable development and Local Agenda 21

C5 and C7: Insight into the chemical nature of the natural environment needed for an understanding of issues of sustainability including the use of manufactured fertilisers.