

media language: how the media communicate meanings through their forms, codes and conventions gained from studying the theoretical framework and media products in Components 01 and 02 to this component. These studies will form the basis of the realisation of their media product for Component 03/04.