

4.8 DIFFERENTIATION

Differentiation in coursework is achieved by task and outcome.

Differentiation in the terminal task is achieved by outcome.

Differentiation in the listening examination is achieved by setting questions which are designed at different levels of difficulty in relation to the musical extracts or by the questions being open ended enough to allow candidates to respond at levels appropriate to their ability.