

Forgiveness and reconciliation Key philosophical and ethical concepts: • Forgiveness • Justice, fairness and injustice • Reconciliation	• The concepts of forgiveness and reconciliation • Different Jewish teachings and beliefs about justice, forgiveness and reconciliation • The impact of teachings about justice, forgiveness and reconciliation on individuals, communities and society • Whether forgiveness is either possible or desirable • Different Jewish attitudes towards justice, forgiveness and reconciliation • The concepts of justice and injustice, including: ◦ The relationship between peace and a just society ◦ Social justice and injustice ◦ Ways in which Jews work for social justice ◦ Ways in which Jews view social injustice Learners should be aware of the justifications Jews give for different views, attitudes and understandings, from the perspectives of different Jewish groups.	• Genesis 9:6 • Exodus 21:23–24 • Numbers 14:19–21 • Isaiah 1:18
Dialogue between religious and non-religious beliefs and attitudes
Area of study	Content Learners should have studied the following:	Suggested sources of wisdom and authority (Learners will be given credit for referring to any appropriate sources of wisdom and authority)