

Dialogue between religious and non-religious groups Key philosophical and ethical concepts: • Beliefs • Religious values • Secular values	• Different Hindu views and attitudes towards non-religious worldviews • Hindu values and ideals shared with: ◦ Atheism ◦ Agnosticism ◦ Humanism ◦ Secularism • The significance of shared values and ideals between religious and non-religious groups for individuals, communities and society • Whether secular values should take precedence over Hindu religious values • Potential areas of disagreement and difference between Hinduism and the following: ◦ Atheism ◦ Agnosticism ◦ Humanism ◦ Secularism • The significance of these potential areas of disagreement and difference for individuals, communities and society Learners should be aware of the justifications Hindus give for different views, attitudes and understandings, from the perspectives of different Hindu groups.	• Hindu views about God and gods, Brahman and ultimate truths; Ishvara and atheist or non-theist Hinduism • Hindu principles and secular society – varnas (castes) and ashramas (stages of life), the yamas (virtues) • Maya (delusion), vidya (knowledge) and avidya (ignorance) • The British Humanist Association • The National Secular Society
--	--	---