

9.6 Effects of drugs on the nervous system

- i Understand how the effects of drugs can be caused by their influence on synaptic transmission, including:
- nicotine (mimicking effects of acetylcholine)
 - lidocaine (blocking voltage gated Na^+ ion channels)
 - cobra venom (blocking acetylcholine receptors).