

Unit 2

- The relevance of genre in relation to the particular texts studied and how texts are influenced by literary conventions
- How playwrights use dramatic forms to evoke responses in audiences
- The contexts in which texts have been produced and received and understanding of how these contexts influence meaning
- Key connections between drama texts studied
- A range of ways to read and experience texts
- Ways to interpret texts independently in response to interpretations by different readers
- Ways to communicate clearly and effectively their responses to the texts studied, in a range of forms
- Ways to construct critical arguments

2.5 Assessment criteria

Explorative study

A01	Articulate creative, informed and relevant responses to literary texts, using appropriate terminology and concepts, and coherent, accurate written expression.
Band 1 Marks 0-3	■ Attempts to establish argument ■ Makes some use of critical technical terminology ■ Writes with generally clear expression with technical lapses
Band 2 Marks 4-6	■ Produces a controlled and logical argument ■ Makes appropriate use of critical terminology ■ Writes coherently with accuracy and fluency

A02	Demonstrate detailed critical understanding in analysing the ways in which structure, form and language shape meanings in literary texts.
Band 1 Marks 0-4	■ Identifies some features of structure, form and language with limited understanding of effects ■ Offers limited critical analysis of how structure, form and language shape meaning
Band 3 Marks 5-8	■ Makes detailed exploration of particular features of structure, form and language with clear understanding of varied effects ■ Offers perceptive critical analysis of how structure, form and language shape meaning

A03	Explore connections and comparisons between different literary texts, informed by interpretations of other readers.
Band 1 Marks 0-4	■ Refers to one or more appropriate literary texts ■ Asserts a limited personal response to literary texts
Band 2 Marks 5-9	■ Makes some relevant connections and comparisons between appropriate literary texts ■ Identifies interpretations of literary texts by other readers
Band 3 Marks 10-14	■ Makes some relevant but often narrative connections and comparisons between appropriate literary texts ■ Shows awareness of different interpretations and makes use of these to develop a line of argument about literary and critical texts
Band 4 Marks 15-20	■ Makes relevant connections and comparisons between different texts as the basis of a coherent response ■ Shows awareness and understanding of different interpretations of literary and critical texts and makes effective use of these to develop a line of argument
Band 5 Marks 21-26	■ Makes perceptive and insightful critical connections and comparisons between appropriate texts ■ Demonstrates an open-minded approach to different interpretations of appropriate texts and applies this knowledge to develop a line of argument
Band 6 Marks 27-31	■ Shapes and explores connections and comparisons between appropriate texts ■ Explores different interpretations of texts to analyse them in a consistent argument
Band 7 Marks 32-36	■ Articulates confident opinions and judgements about appropriate texts by making critical comparisons and connections between them ■ Analyses interpretations of appropriate texts by other readers in a critical and sustained argument

A04	Demonstrate understanding of the significance and influence of the contexts in which literary texts are written and received.
Band 1 Marks 0-3	■ Produces a response which makes limited or partially assimilated use of knowledge of conditions in which the text was produced ■ Demonstrates limited understanding of effects of contextual factors on an audience
Band 2 Marks 4-7	■ Produces a response which shows good understanding of the conditions in which the text was produced ■ Demonstrates some understanding of effects of contextual factors on an audience with some awareness of different audiences over time
Band 3 Marks 8-12	■ Produces a response which is enriched by a detailed understanding of the conditions in which the text was produced ■ Demonstrates perceptive understanding of the effects of contextual factors on an audience with some insightful comments on the perspectives of different audiences over time

Creative critical response

AO1	Articulate creative, informed and relevant responses to literary texts, using appropriate terminology and concepts, and coherent, accurate written expression.
Band 1 Marks 0-3	■ Demonstrates some awareness of register and audience ■ Writes with generally clear expression with technical lapses ■ Uses some of the features of the language, style and structure of the chosen critical form to produce writing which attempts to persuade in the creative critical response
Band 2 Marks 4-6	■ Demonstrates clear awareness of register and audience ■ Writes coherently with accuracy and fluency ■ Uses persuasively the language, style and structure of the chosen critical form to achieve desired effects in the creative critical response

AO4	Demonstrate understanding of the significance and influence of the contexts in which literary texts are written and received.
Band 1 Marks 0-3	■ Makes some attempt to write in an appropriate format and register ■ Offers limited interpretation of texts within their contexts with limited awareness of how they are received
Band 2 Marks 4-7	■ Adopts an appropriate format and register for presenting ideas about texts in context ■ Interprets texts with some recognition of the influence of contextual factors and provides some relevant critical discussion of how they are received
Band 3 Marks 8-12	■ Demonstrates confidence and skill in using an appropriate format for discussing and presenting ideas about texts in context ■ Presents an effective, thoughtful interpretation of texts within their contexts with a clear awareness of how they are received

Total marks for Unit 2:	80
--------------------------------	-----------

Teachers must show clearly how the marks have been awarded in relation to the assessment criteria. For more information, please refer to the Edexcel Advanced Subsidiary and GCE in English Literature: Instructions and administrative documentation for internally assessed units document, which is available on the Edexcel website.