

3.8 Social, political and environmental tensions have resulted from the rapidity of global change caused by globalisation.	a. Open borders, deregulation and encouragement of foreign direct investment have created culturally mixed societies and thriving migrant diasporas. Changes caused by globalisation have resulted in tensions in some locations. (🌐 Rise of extreme nationalism in Europe). b. Attempts have been made in some locations to control the spread of globalisation by censorship (🌐 China or North Korea), limiting immigration (🌐 UK or Japan) and trade protectionism. (P: role of government) (A: attitudes of pro- and anti-immigration groups) c. Some groups seek to retain their cultural identity within countries and seek to retain control of culture and physical resources, whereas others embrace the changes brought by globalisation (🌐 First Nations in Canada).
