

Knowledge, Skills and Understanding:

Paper 3

Introduction to the Paper 3 options

The relevant pages in this section specify the substantive content that must be taught for the chosen option. All of the content for each option is mandatory.

Each Paper 3 option has two focuses: Aspects in breadth (containing themes) and Aspects in depth (containing key topics).

The Aspects in breadth focus on developments and changes over an extended timescale of at least 100 years. As well as understanding the content, students will need to develop the skills needed to be able to answer questions that target understanding of long-term changes (AO1). The Aspects in breadth also help to contextualise the Aspects in depth, but without duplicating content.

The Aspects in depth require a more in-depth understanding than the Aspects in breadth. As well as understanding the specified content, students will need to develop the skills needed to be able to answer questions that target knowledge and understanding of the period (AO1) and questions that target the ability to analyse and evaluate sources (AO2).

Further information about the knowledge, skills and understanding to be assessed can be found in Appendix 7.

Paper 3, Option 30: Lancastrians, Yorkists and Henry VII, 1399–1509

Overview

This option comprises two parts: the Aspects in breadth focus on long-term changes and contextualise the Aspects in depth, which focus in detail on key episodes.

Together, the breadth and depth topics explore the dramatic developments in late medieval England that centred around the personalities and political skills of a series of kings, queens and their powerful subjects, and the impact of these developments on the kingdom. Within the primarily political focus on the nature of kingship and authority in England, this option also explores the wider social and economic contexts of political struggle.

Aspects in breadth: 'The Divinity which doth hedge a King': changes in royal authority, 1399–1509
Themes	Content
1 Changing relationships between crown and the nobility: 'over-mighty subjects'	- Major landowners and their role in governing the kingdom, 1399–1509: lands, offices of state and church patronage; necessary props to the crown but potential rivals (key developments: the crushing of the conspiracy against Henry V in 1415, the execution of Warwick in 1499). The importance of retaining, 1399–1509: livery and maintenance; the concept of 'bastard feudalism' (key developments: statutes in 1468 and 1504 against retaining). - Coping with challenge – disorder and local rivalries, 1399–1509, including Neville versus Percy in the north, Bonville versus Courteney in the south west, the experience of the Pastons in East Anglia (key developments: the readeption of Henry VI in 1470 and the return of Edward IV in 1471; increased control of the localities in the 1470s).
2 Changes in the sinews of power	- Royal income, 1399–1509: land, custom duties, feudal rights, profits of justice, taxation; the roles of the Exchequer and the Chamber. The role of parliament, 1399–1509: prop or curb to royal power? (key development: the Parliament of 1406). - War and diplomacy, 1399–1509: benefits and cost to the crown (key developments: the losses in France in 1453, the Treaty of Picquigny 1475, the Spanish Marriage 1499).
