Access arrangements, reasonable adjustments and special consideration

For further information on access arrangements please see the Joint Council for Qualifications (JCQ) document Access Arrangements, Reasonable Adjustments and Special Consideration for General and Vocational Qualifications. The document is on our website at: www.edexcel.com/policies.

Access arrangements

Access arrangements are pre-examination adjustments for students based on evidence of need and their normal way of working. Access arrangements fall into two distinct categories: some arrangements are delegated to centres, others require prior JCQ awarding body approval.

Access arrangements allow candidates and students with special educational needs, disabilities or temporary injuries to access the assessment without changing its demands, for example, the use of readers, scribes and Braille question papers. By making access arrangements awarding organisations comply with the duty of the Equality Act 2010 to make 'reasonable adjustments'.

Teachers must apply for access arrangements at the beginning of the course.

Reasonable adjustments

The Equality Act 2010 requires an awarding organisation to make reasonable adjustments where a person with a disability would be at a substantial disadvantage in undertaking an assessment.

A reasonable adjustment for a particular person may be unique to that individual and therefore might not be in the list of available access arrangements.

How reasonable the adjustment is will depend on a number of factors, including the needs of the student with the disability. An adjustment may not be considered reasonable if it involves unreasonable costs and/or timeframes or affects the security or integrity of the assessment.

There is no duty on awarding organisations to make any adjustment to the Assessment Objectives being tested in an assessment.

Special consideration

Special consideration is a post-examination adjustment to a student's mark or grade to reflect temporary injury, illness or other indisposition at the time of the examination/ assessment.

Equality Act 2010 and Pearson equality policy

Equality and fairness are central to our work. Our equality policy requires all students to have equal opportunity to access our qualifications and assessments, and our qualifications to be awarded in a way that is fair to every student.

We are committed to making sure that:

- students with a protected characteristic (as defined by the Equality Act 2010) are not, when they are undertaking one of our qualifications, disadvantaged in comparison to students who do not share that characteristic
- all students achieve the recognition they deserve for undertaking a qualification and that this achievement can be compared fairly to the achievement of their peers.

You can find details on how to make adjustments for students with protected characteristics in the policy document Access Arrangements, Reasonable Adjustments and Special Considerations, which is on our website, www.edexcel.com/Policies.

Prior learning and progression

Prior learning

Students who would benefit most from studying a GCE in Physical Education are likely to have a Level 2 qualification such as a GCSE in Physical Education at grades A*–C or another Level 2 qualification such as a BTEC First in Sport.

Progression

This qualification supports progression into further and higher education, training or employment, such as sports sciences, recreation and leisure studies, physiotherapy, the armed forces and the civil service.

Combinations of entry	There are no forbidden combinations.
Student recruitment	Pearson's access policy concerning recruitment to our qualifications is that: ■ they must be available to anyone who is capable of reaching the required standard ■ they must be free from barriers that restrict access and progression ■ equal opportunities exist for all students.
The wider curriculum	This qualification provides opportunities for developing an understanding of spiritual, social and cultural issues, together with an awareness of environmental issues, health and safety considerations, and European developments consistent with relevant international agreements appropriate as applied to physical education. Appendix 2: Wider curriculum maps the opportunities available.

E Resources, support and training

Resources to support the specification

In addition to the resources available in the Getting Started and Internal Assessment guide books, we produce a wide range of resources to support this specification.

Pearson's own published resources

Pearson aims to provide the most comprehensive support for our qualifications. We have therefore published our own dedicated suite of resources for teachers and students written by qualification experts. These resources include:

- AS Students' Book
- A2 Students' Book
- AS Teacher's CD ROM
- A2 Teacher's CD ROM.

Pearson support services

Pearson support services

Pearson has a wide range of support services to help you implement this qualification successfully.

ResultsPlus – ResultsPlus is an application launched by Pearson to help subject teachers, senior management teams, and students by providing detailed analysis of examination performance. Reports that compare performance between subjects, classes, your centre and similar centres can be generated in 'one-click'. Skills maps that show performance according to the specification topic being tested are available for some subjects. For further information about which subjects will be analysed through ResultsPlus, and for information on how to access and use the service, please visit www.edexcel.com/resultsplus

Ask the Expert – to make it easier for our teachers to ask us subject specific questions we have provided the Ask the Expert Service. This easy-to-use web query form will allow you to ask any question about the delivery or teaching of Pearson qualifications. You'll get a personal response, from one of our administrative or teaching experts, sent to the email address you provide. You can access this service at www.edexcel.com/ask

Support for Students

Learning flourishes when students take an active interest in their education; when they have all the information they need to make the right decisions about their futures. With the help of feedback from students and their teachers, we've developed a website for students that will help them:

- understand subject specifications
- access past papers and mark schemes
- learn about other students' experiences at university, on their travels and when entering the workplace.

We're committed to regularly updating and improving our online services for students. The most valuable service we can provide is helping schools and colleges unlock the potential of their learners. www.edexcel.com/students

Professional development and training

Pearson supports UK and international customers with training related to our qualifications. This support is available through a choice of training options offered on our website: www.edexcel.com/resources/Training.

The support we offer focuses on a range of issues, such as:

- planning for the delivery of a new programme
- planning for assessment and grading
- developing effective assignments
- building your team and teamwork skills
- developing learner-centred learning and teaching approaches
- building in effective and efficient quality assurance systems.

The national programme of training we offer is on our website at: www.edexcel.com/resources/Training. You can request centre-based training through the website or you can contact one of our advisers in the Training from Pearson UK team via Customer Services to discuss your training needs.

Training and support for the lifetime of the qualifications

Training and networks: our training programme ranges from free introductory events through sector-specific opportunities to detailed training on all aspects of delivery, assignments and assessment. We also host some regional network events to allow you to share your experiences, ideas and best practice with colleagues in your region.

Regional support: our team of Curriculum Development Managers and Curriculum Support Consultants, based around the country, are responsible for providing advice and support in centres. They can help you with planning and curriculum developments.
