

2 Subject content and assessment information

Qualification aims and objectives

The aims and objectives of this qualification are to enable students to:

- apply knowledge and understanding when making, performing and responding to drama
- explore performance texts, understanding their social, cultural and historical context including the theatrical conventions of the period in which they were created
- develop a range of theatrical skills and apply them to create performances
- work collaboratively to generate, develop and communicate ideas
- develop as creative, effective, independent and reflective students able to make informed choices in process and performance
- contribute as an individual to a theatrical performance
- reflect on and evaluate their own work and that of others
- develop an awareness and understanding of the roles and processes undertaken in contemporary professional theatre practice
- adopt safe working practices.

Core skills

The core skills developed in this qualification are:

- the ability to recognise and understand the roles and responsibilities of performer, designer and director
- the study and exploration of texts and extracts must include the relevant social, historical and cultural contexts
- the ability to analyse and evaluate their own work and the work of others
- the ability to understand how performance texts can be interpreted and performed.

Performance and designer routes

Students may complete Components 1 and 2 as a performer or designer or do any combination of both of these roles.