

- Section B – Imaginative writing: explore and develop imaginative writing skills.

The learning outcomes below are drawn from the GCSE Subject Level Conditions and Requirements for English Language, published April 2014.

Learning outcomes		Students will:
1.1 Reading	1.1.1	read and understand a range of prose fiction, including unseen texts
	1.1.2	critical reading and comprehension: identify and interpret themes, ideas and information in a range of literature and other high-quality writing; read in different ways for different purposes, and evaluate the usefulness, relevance and presentation of content for these purposes; draw inferences and justify these with evidence; support a point of view by referring to evidence within the text; identify bias and misuse of evidence, including distinguishing between statements that are supported by evidence and those that are not; reflect critically and evaluatively on text, use the context of the text and draw on knowledge and skills gained from wider reading; recognise the possibility of different responses to a text
	1.1.3	summary: identify the main theme or themes; summarise ideas and information from a single text
	1.1.4	evaluation of a writer's choice of vocabulary, form, grammatical and structural features: explain and illustrate how vocabulary and grammar contribute to effectiveness and impact, use linguistic and literary terminology accurately to do so and pay attention to detail; analyse and evaluate how form and structure contribute to the effectiveness and impact of a text

Learning outcomes		Students will:
1.2 Writing	1.2.1	produce clear and coherent text: write accurately and effectively for different purposes and audiences: to describe, narrate, explain, instruct, give and respond to information, and argue; select vocabulary, grammar, form, and structural and organisational features judiciously to reflect audience, purpose and context; use language imaginatively and creatively; using information provided by others to write in different forms; maintaining a consistent point of view; maintaining coherence and consistency across a text
	1.2.2	write for impact: select, organise and emphasise facts, ideas and key points; cite evidence and quotation effectively and pertinently to support views; create emotional impact; use language creatively, imaginatively and persuasively, including rhetorical devices (such as rhetorical questions, antithesis, parenthesis).

Content

Students should read selections from a range of high-quality, challenging prose fiction, in preparation for responding to an unseen 19th-century prose fiction extract in the examination. They should be able to read substantial pieces of writing (extended texts) that make significant demands on them in terms of content, structure and the quality of language. Throughout the qualification, students should develop the skills of inference, analysis and evaluation. Students studying GCSE English Literature should be encouraged to analyse and evaluate the use of English language in a full range of their literature texts.

The Pearson Edexcel Level 1/Level 2 GCSE (9–1) English Language Unseen Preparation Anthology is a resource that supports teachers by providing examples of 19th-century prose fiction. Students should read a variety of prose fiction from a range of genres and cultures.

Students should use what they have learned about the writer's craft in their reading of fiction to inspire and influence their own imaginative writing. They should develop a range of creative writing techniques, and planning and proofreading skills.
